THE CHEROKEE BUILDING

Handsome 3-Story Structure Going Up Rapidly.

Bricklayers are now at work on the second story of the Cherokee 3-story office building, on West Ninth street, separated from the Elks Home by a 12-foot alley.

The walls are being built of red smooth-pressed brick and when completed will be quite an addition to that part of Ninth street. Everything is to be modern and up-to-date.
There will be a large number of offices, single and in suits, and will no doubt be occupied a short time after the finishing touches are put on.

NEW HOUSE OF WORSHIP

For Methodists to Be Built in Hopkinsville in the Very Near Future.

WILL COST ABOUT $50,000.00

Committee Authorized to Sell Property and Proceed at Will.

The members of the Methodist church have decided to get down to earnest work and build a new house of worship on South Main street, on the James Anderson place. This property was given to the congregation by the late John C. Latham not many years before his death. The site is a most desirable one and it is the purpose of the congregation to erect a building on it that will cost about $45,000 or $50,000.

The church at Ninth and Clay streets is said to be the oldest house of worship in the city, the Westminster church ranking second as to age. In fact, all the church buildings are new, the First Christian church retaining hardly a semblance of the old building when it was remodeled, just a few years since.

It is the purpose of the committee appointed last Monday night to put the old building and the parsonage on Campbell street on the market at once and thus, and in other ways, secure a fund sufficient to erect a much larger building in a more quiet part of the city.

Ninth street is now a business street as far as the L. & N. station, and the large building now used for worship can easily be converted into a business house or a large apartment building. The committee appointed to take the initial steps in building and disposing of the church's property is composed of the pastor, Rev. A. R. Kasey, G. E.
Randle, J. H. Cate, R. E. Cooper, Frank Rives, J. W. Adams, J. T.
Thomas and Ira L. Smith. R. E.
Cooper is chairman of the committee and there is enough business and push in the committee to build two churches, and they will prove it in a very short time.

arrested at Tiptonville, Tenn., Mon-the chain gang at Clarksville and was traced towards Tiptonville, where the wrong man was picked up.

When taken to Clarksville he was identified as Gilmore.

was revealed when a tire pulled up fessed she had fixed the "tire killer" there because an automobile had killed her dog. She was fined $25.00 and costs.

HOTELLATHAM
FOLLOWS SUIT

Will Discourage Such Dances
As Are Under Th-Ban.

SENTIMENT IS VERY STRONG.

For Eliminating The New Fangled, Bunny Hugs and Tangos.

It may be asserted that the objectionable dances that have been seen in many cities will not become popular in this city. The request of Mayor Meacham made last week that the owners of the halls used for dancing settle this vexed question in advance by nipping the turkey trot and other tough dances in the bud has been complied with so generally that there will probably be no attempts to dance them. The Elks Home trustees promptly acted on the matter and the last dance, an elegant and largely attended event, was altogether free from criticism.
The trustees have announced that the objectionable dances will not be allowed in the building. Messrs. A.
D. Noe & Son, proprietors of Hotel Latham, have taken a similar position, stating that they are in hearty accord with the Mayor's position and that the questionable dances will not be allowed when the dining room is used for balls, and nobody seems to object to the action taken in the matter.

DR. J. D. CLARDY

Was In the City Tuesday, the First Time Since February.

No man in the county could have been more warmly greeted than was Dr. J. D. Clardy when he stopped at this office Tuesday morning and spent awhile in meeting a number of his friends.

The Doctor is now in pretty good health, he says, but since he recovered from a stroke of paralysis last March his memory of events before that time is almost gone, but things that have transpired since then he recalls with readiness. For several years the Doctor's hearing has been failing and he does not now see so well as formerly.

He says he is not much on the walk, but twice a day he gets into his buggy with his wife or son and is driven over the farm. His right leg was affected by paralysis, but he is gradually regaining use of it. He attended the missionary rally at South Union church last Tuesday and was very much pleased with the services. His daughter, Mrs. J. N.
Prestridge, will remain with him until fall. Dr. Clardy is now in his 83d year, and his visit to the city Tuesday was the first time he has been here since last February.

COMING BACK

The Park Dramatic Co. To Fill Week's Engagement Here.

Mr. Frank A. Cook, Press Agent of C. W. Park Dramatic Co., was in the city Tuesday and arranged for a week's return of this excellent company next week. It was here last year and presented a fine line of shows in a tent on the J. J. Metcalfe lot. It will show in the same place this year and be here all of next week, coming from Clarksville. Mr.
Cook is a clever gentleman and has made many friends in Hopkinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. T. U. Smith, of Guthrie, were in town Monday.

CONSOLIDATED
DRUG STORES

The Coates Drug Company and Anderson & Fowler Drug Co.

TO RUN UNDER LATTER NAME

Mr. Coates Will Be In Charge at Ninth and Main Streets.

A deal was consummated Monday evening whereby the Coates Drug Store Co., No. 7 South Main street, became part owners of the Anderson & Fowler Drug Co.'s business at Ninth and Main streets.

Mr. R. E. Coates, a member of the first named firm, will be in charge of the corner house and Mr. Alex. C.
Overshiner, the other member of the same company, will manage the store at No. 7 South Main until the end of the year.

This consolidation means that the two stores are to be consolidated as far as possible and at once. The general stock of goods at the stand of the Coates Drug Co. will be moved to the Anderson & Fowler corner, but the soda fountain and refreshment department will be continued at No. 7, as the Coates Drug Co. has a lease on the room until the end of the year.

The Coates Co. has been doing a splendid business from the very start and as the Anderson & Fowler stand is generally regarded as one of the best locations in the city and the building peculiarly suited for the drug business, Messrs. Coates and Overshiner are to be congratulated on their success in getting "down in the bottom."

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

More Litigation in Prospect for the City.

At the Council meeting Friday night ordinances No. 40 and 41 were given second passage, ordering sidewalks and valleys on both sides of Bryan street and on West side of North Main Street, north of Little river.

The mayor was authorized to make another three months' note for $5,000 at one of the banks. The Park Committee submitted its report of expenditures on Virginia Park to July 1, about $5,000, accompanied by the treasurer's itemized report on warrants issued.

The Kentucky Public Service Co. was given a contract to wire the sexton's house at Riverside cemetery for electric lights.

The sewer committee was again directed to have gas-traps placed in the sewer openings at Ninth and Main streets.

C. E. Harris was given the contract to paint the three iron bridges.
The mayor reported suits filed against the city by Tom West for $1110, by P. T. Swain for damages from overflow and by Meacham Contracting Co. for unpaid balance of $1500 on the Tenth street Sewer contract. The Council gave a warrant on the I. C. railroad, which the railroad refused to pay and the Council by a divided vote refused to make the warrant good.

Macalam was ordered on the cemetery entrance, on 22d street and on North Main street.

An ordinance ordering property owners to put down valleys on the streets where the bitulithic streets are to be laid, was given its first passage.

deal of advertising in the way of

SENATORS

MR. FALL OF NEW MEXICO

Attempts to Have Uncle Sam Read Riot Act to Mexico.

Washington, July 23.—An attempt by Senator Fall, of New Mexico, to force the senate to enunciate a strong policy of protection for American citizens in foreign countries today precipitated a lively debate which demonstrated appreciation on the part of senators of the gravity of the Mexican situation and the necessity for a determined stand by the United States.

The policy of delay on the part of the Taft administration was emphatically denounced by Senator Fall and blamed by him for the present critical situation, which, he said, could have been prevented by a sterner national policy. This declaration was approved by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, who expressed disappointment that the new president and the new secretary of state had not inaugurated a different Mexican policy.

WANTS $10,000 DAMAGES.

C. W. Clark Made Defendant in Slander Suit by S. W.
Hubbard.

"He beat me out of $300, and not satisfied with that, came back and stole my swag," is the basis of S. W.
Hubbard's suit for slander, filed in the Circuit Court a few days ago against C. W. Clark. The plaintiff prays for damages to the amount of $10,000.

Ordinance Regulating Clothes.

It has come at last and Rochester, Pa., leads in the first attempt to regulate female apparel. The city council has reported an ordinance defining the proper dress for women.

Slit skirts, or "exposure gowns" are peremptorily barred. Slashes that go above the shoe tops will not be tolerated, and hose must not be transparent. Skirts that display the female form, if off nsive to the eye or the guardians of the law, will be equelched. All gowns must be high enough on the shoulders and neck to prevent more than a decorous ex-posure of the bosom. Neither will naked arms be permitted.

"Alfalfa Bill" For War

Washington, July 23.—A resolution directing intervention in Mexico if order and peace is not restored within thirty days after President Wilson issues a proclamation to that effect, was introduced in the House of Representatives by Wm.
H. Murray, of Oklahoma, well known as "Alfalfa Bill."

Murray's resolution characterizes Provisional President Huerta as a "usurping marauder," "blackhandmurderer" and his regime as "founded upon treachery, duplicity and murder."

Landmark Destroyed.

The fire last Sunday night that destroyed the dwelling house of Richard Hunt, near Howell, was of unknown origin. The house was known as the Lockett Quarles place, and was one of the landmarks of South Christian. When Mr. Hunt, his wife and 5-year-old daughter awoke their room was full of smoke and the roof was about to fall in.
Nothing at all was saved from the house. The loss is estimated at $3, 500, with $1,000 insurance.

CURIOUS ENDING

To The Double Life Of a Man Who Had Two Living Wives.

THEY WILL LIVE TOGETHER.

Two Families Were Merged Into One In The City of Chicago.

La Crosse, Wis., July 23.—An unusual sequel to the exposure of the double life of Willard B. Frost, who died in a Chicago hospital on February 28, came today when the Chicago widow of Frost came here, met the La Crosse widow and left with her and the latter's children for Chicago, the two women agreeing to make their home together for the remainder of their lives.

In Chicago Frost had a wife, a son of 21 years and a daughter 18 years old. In La Crosse, where he was known as Dr. Wilfred B. Montclair, he had a wife and two boys of three and two years. Until his death each family was in ignorance of the other's existence, and Frost, or Montclair, was considered a model husband and father, whose business took him away from home much of the time.
Revelations of his double life prostrated both widows.

With their four children they have taken up their residence in Chicago.
"We will live together and teach them to respect the memory of their father," said the Chicago Mrs. Frost.
"It is our work. We both loved him and if he made a mistake it is our duty to rectify it."

RICHARD LEAVELL

Loses Garage and Automobile in a Costly Blaze.

The garage on the country place of Mr. Richard Leavell, on the Clarksville pike, was burned Monday evening and not only was the building destroyed but Mr. Leavell's automobile, a comparatively new touring car, was also burned.

A boy was vulcanizing some inner tubes of the tires and while he was out on some errand the vulcanizer set fire to some gasoline spilled on the floor. The fire was well under way when it was discovered and nothing could be saved from the building. Mr. Leavell's loss is about $2,500, upon which there is no insurance.

The Inventor of the Watch.

Peter Heinlein, the inventor of the pocket watch, was persecuted for witchcraft when he withdrew from his companions to work on his invention. He was finally cast into prison, where the watch was perfected. After some time he retired to the convent of the Carmelites where he continued manufacturing watches, giving the proceeds to the order. He died in 1540. At Nurem-burg, the scene of his persecutions, a monument has been erected to him.

Treated Too Late.

Judge A. W. Cooley, who was taken from New Mexico to Rhode Island in April and treated by Dr.
Friedmann for tuberculosis, died Monday. He was a Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico. He was 40 years old.

Made His Blessing Retrospective.
The father of a family who had been striving to bring up his children in the way they should go was very much annoyed at his son's uncouth habit of helping himself to a few bites before grace had been said. The stereotyped form called for: "A blessing on what we are about to eat," but one occasion being particularly exasperating, he astounded the young man by adding to his petition, "and on that which has already been eaten."

Compassionate Nature.
"I haven't much objection to you personally," said Mr. Cumrox, "but you know my daughter has been accustomed to every luxury." "Well," replied the confident suitor, "I won't ask her to give up anything on my account. I think I could go along and enjoy luxuries as much as anybody."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Roasted Victim Alive.
An almost unbelievably cruel happening has come to light at Hiroshima, Japan. There a man and his wife have been arrested for willfully cremating a live man. The prisoners were in charge of a crematorium, and while at work a faint voice coming out of a coffin begged for fresh air.
The couple took no notice, however, and proceeded to apply fire, roasting the man alive.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Market for Rhodesia Oranges.
The oranges of Rhodesia, in South Africa, will have their market in England, according to the London Times, during the summer months, "when this class of fruit does not come from other parts of the world."

SLEEP FOR NERVOUS PERSON

Application of Warmth, Outside and Inside, Often Brings Slumber to Them.

A hot water bottle covered with flannel should be placed at the feet.
A very thin silk tissue bag of rubber, partially filled with cold water, should be placed at the base of the brain. This bag can be about ten inches long and six inches wide, soft as silk and only half filled with cold water, so that it does not feel bulky back of the head. In many cases the patient goes to sleep within a few minutes with this treatment, because the blood is drawn from the active brain, which is one cause of insomnia.

When a patient is extremely nervous a cracker spread with butter and sprinkled slightly with cayenne pepper should be eaten. This warms the stomach. The stocking wound around the neck, not too close, yet rather snug, is an old method, for it does not retard the flow of blood from the head to the arteries, but it does retard the flow to the head, just as the cold water assists. All of these methods are simple, effective and harmless.

A cup of hot milk taken just before retiring will induce sleep. Those who hesitate about drinking the milk lest it cause constipation should remember that boiled milk, taken hot, acts as a laxative. It is only when it is cooled that it has the opposite effect.

MANY NIGHTS

First Tramp—Say, Raggy, did you ever see "Ten Nights in a Barroom?"
Second Tramp—Tut, tut. I've seen ten hundred nights in a barroom.

LOOKS THAT WAY.

Bill—It seems Switzerland is building a new railroad 13.5 percent. of the line of which will be through tunnels.
Jill—Evidently making a strong bid for the honeymooners.

SOME DO.

"She's too poor for our circle. I smell gasoline on her. She evidently cleans her own gloves."
"Go slow, now. She may be one of these swagger girls who knows how to adjust her own car."

ONLY PROPER THING.

"I saw a lady I knew smoking the other day, and she was put out when I caught her."
"What did you do?"
"Wrapped a rug around her and smothered the fire."

CONVINCED OF THE FACT.

"Jobbers wishes it distinctly understood that he is not in business for his health."
"I think that is understood quite clearly by everybody who has had business dealings with jobbers."

ITS NATURE.

"I see those jolly students thren their alarm clocks at one another."
"I call such amusement as tha throwing away time."

A MISTAKE.

"I understand that grand opera singer has an unusually low voice."
"Nothing of the sort. Five dollars a ticket to hear it."

NECESSITY OF THE CASE.

"I don't care to read any of Jones' articles. He is so superficial."
"But he has to go deeply into this subject. It's about boring wells."

LITERAL.

"My dear, what on earth is the concoction you have brought me?"
"It's starch water. Didn't you tell me you wanted a stiff drink?"

KING OF GREECE A SOLDIER

Constantine Received an Excellent Military Education and Has Given Proof of Skill.

Constantine, the new king of Greece, is of Danish and Russian blood, his father having been a son of Christian IX. of Denmark, and his mother being the eldest daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine, a brother of Alexander II. King Constantine was born in Athens, and brought up under an English governess and German and Greek tutors.
Later on he went to Berlin, where he received his education as a soldier, being attached to the Second regiment of Prussian Foot Guards.
In 1897 he took command of the Greek troops in the war with Turkey, but his army was crushed in Thessaly. In April last he was appointed inspector general of the forces and has since shown himself a soldier of merit. At the moment of his accession he was in Epirus, conducting the military operations for sweeping the Turks out of that province.

THIS PASTOR WAS NO SPORT

He Spoiled the Young Man's Proposed Wrestling Match With His Dark Angel.

A young man anxious to have some one wrestle with his dark angel, announced dramatically to his pastor as they were walking down the street that he was tempted to break one of the commandments. His pastor, always effective and original, bethought him of a homeopathic cure, and responded coolly: "Well, why don't you do it?" The wrestling match was off. The dark angel sneaked away without a peep. The boy went home feeling as if he had been spanked and laughed at. The parson was no sport.

DECORATIONS.

"You got this description of my hat wrong," declared the Fiji queen.
"You say it had a cluster of bows over one ear."
"What is wrong?" faltered the society reporter.
"It was a cluster of ears over one bow."

THEN WHICH?

Bona—Had a tooth pulled yesterday.
Fide—Did you take chloroform or gas?
Bona—Thank God, not ether.— Texas Coyote.

BASEBALL TALENT.

"Do you notice how serious Sluggem is at bat, while Buntline is quite lively?"
"Well, Sluggem was in tragedy all winter, while Buntline played in light farce."

MIXED LANGUAGE.

"This aviation business is going to make a great confusion in words."
"How so?"
"Here they're talking of an aviator who has just gained a footing by his flights."

EVERY WOMAN.

"A woman always wants the last word."
"The last word would never satisfy my wife."
"You surprise me!"
"She wants all of them."

PEEVISH.

"I had to kill my dog this morning."
"Was he mad?"
"Well, he didn't seem any too well pleased."

HER MISTAKE.

"Our teacher told Jim Jones always to look straight ahead in life."
"Well, what's the matter with that?"
"Jim's cross-eyed."

ONE ROUTE.

"What do you think of that woman's acting?"
"I don't see how she got on the stage. Who did she ever shoot?"

A PREVENTIVE.

"I wish, Jane, you would not powder your face so much. It makes a girl look loud."
"But, pa, I use noiseless powder."

SEEKING EXCITEMENT.

"I long for adventure."
"Why don't you go to Boston and split an infinitive?"

PRINCESS AUGUSTINE VICTORIA TO WED SOON

Emperor William so completely overshadows the members of his house by the importance of the place which he occupies as ruler of one of the mightiest of the great powers of the world that one is likely to forget that there are other Hohenzollerns, and that, strictly speaking, the line to which he belongs is the younger branch of the dynasty. It needs an event such as the betrothal of ex-King Manuel of Portugal to Princess Augustine Victoria of Hohenzollern, which was officially announced last week, to recall the fact that the Sigmaringen Hohenzollerns are the senior branch, although the members have for more than two hundred years past been willing to recognize the supremacy of the ruler of Prussia by reason of his importance among the monarchs of Europe.

SUPREME COURT ADMITS ANOTHER PORTIA

Mrs. Josiah Quincy Kern, author, newspaper woman and lawyer, has been admitted to the bar of the Supreme court of the United States. Her admission was moved by Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, dean of the Washington College of law.

Mrs. Kern, the wife of Judge Josiah Quincy Kern, is a graduate of Mrs. Mussey's college. She graduated in 1907 and was admitted during that year to the district supreme court and the district court of appeals. Mrs. Kern is active in club and educational circles.

It was Mrs. Kern who was elected a member of the Washington board of education this year to succeed Mrs. Elizabeth Hoek, a place for which Miss Mahel Boardman was previously selected, but felt compelled to decline on account of the pressure of her Red cross work.

Among the many positions in club-dom held by Mrs. Kern are president of the National League of Pen Women; a director of the College Women's club; chairman of the committees on club extension and comic supplements of the District Federation of Women's clubs; member of the Twentieth Century club and president of the Toner-Grant Home School association.

Mrs. Kern is a native of Harvard, Ill. As is customary when a woman is admitted to the bar of the Supreme court of the United States, she was dressed in black. The large picture hat, long black gloves and furs were left in an ante room. This is a set rule when a woman appears to take the solemn oath admitting her to practice before the highest court in the land. Just after the ceremonies, Mrs. Kern said: "I do not believe that I shall practice law, but shall devote my time to writing and speaking on educational subjects, and shall continue my studies in the proper education of children. For the past few years my time has been so taken up that I have not had the opportunity to write as much as I should like, but I have now so arranged my affairs that I will be able to take up that work, as I much prefer that line of endeavor."

AGUINALDO AS FARMER TYPICAL OF EVOLUTION

Aguinaldo, erstwhile rebel leader, engaged in farming and in the manufacture of a special brand of hemp braid for hats, is the enticing picture of Philippine industrial conditions drawn by J. C. Muerman, formerly division school superintendent of Cebu, P. I., now a rural school specialist in the United States bureau of education.

Mr. Muerman describes the remarkable educational advance in the islands since the day the first American teachers disembarked from the United States transport Thomas a dozen years ago.

Unhindered by academic tradition, and face to face with problems of education that were as big as civilization itself, these educators and those who followed them have gradually developed a system of Philippine schools under Filipino teachers that is rapidly transforming the social and industrial life of the islands.

Compulsory industrial training, fitted for the needs of everyday Filipino life, is the most distinctive feature of the island schools. The Americans have carefully studied the possibilities of the valuable raw materials abundantly at hand in the islands, and are able to show the Filipinos how to make the most of them. Every Filipino schoolboy is required to do a certain amount of work with native woods and fibers; every one must learn to till the soil by actually doing it in the school garden and in a plot of his own, and every Filipino schoolgirl is taught certain essentials of sewing and other home-making arts. All the children in the schools are obliged to pass through this period of elementary training in the everyday tasks of life.

RECENTLY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE D. A. R.

The newly elected president of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution has been a member of the society for a number of years. Being a woman of wonderful poise and gracious personality she makes an impressive presiding officer, and as the head of several large organizations has demonstrated her executive ability on many occasions.

Descended from a line of ancestors who settled in New York in 1613, Mrs. Story is connected with many of the most prominent Dutch families of that state. She is the only daughter of Dr. James Hart Allen and Frances Lupton Porter Allen. Her grandfather, Stephen Allen, was at one time mayor of New York. She has held the following offices: State regent of New York; state treasurer; first New York state director of the D. A. R.; president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs; first vice-president of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs; vice-president Washington Headquarters association, founded by the D. A. R., and is now honorary state regent of New York; vice president of the National Society of Patriotic Women of America; historian of the Washington Headquarters association, D. A. R.; a member of the Society of Colonial Dames in the state of New York, and regent of Manhattan Chapter.

Say "We," Not "He." Is not that a great thought, that we can escape the bondage of mere servitude by simply rising above our work, putting our heart into it and doing our best? Do not envy the "boss." Many are his perplexities, great his problems to make his venture succeed. Heartily co-operate to help him and begin to say "we," not "he." "We" are going to grow the best corn this year in the north 40 that was ever seen. "We" are fitting the best lot of calves for the international ever seen. Compel that employer to take you at once into an invisible partnership just by using the word "we" and putting your heart into the work.—Breeder's Gazette.

Not Long So. "Sir, your daughter is peerless." "Well, that's her own fault. I could have bought her a peer any time she wanted one."

TRACKLESS TROLLEY

A Suggestion to the H. B. M. A., With Apologies.

This paper has endorsed everything good the Hopkinsville Business Men's Association has done during the first year of its existence, in no way criticizing what it has done or what it has not done. It is a great organization and has a broad field in which to labor. Much may be accomplished in another year and doubtless will be.

We offer our first suggestion, and we get it from the following extract from the Nashville Tennessean:

The Trackless Trolley Company of America will at once ask franchises to operate the first trackless system in the South, in Sullivan and Washington counties, Tenn. J. G. Rasmussen, of New York, who is chief engineer for the Cities' Service Corporation, is in Bristol in connection with the matter and it is said that the work of erecting the trolleys will be begun as soon as the county courts give the franchises. Mr. Rasmussen is well known in Bristol, having recently purchased for his company the Watauga Power Company, of Carter county, paying nearly $500,000.

It is proposed to erect the first line between Bristol and Jonesboro, by way of Johnson City and Bluff City. This will be over the Memphis-to-Bristol highway, and the road will touch Elizabethton. The Watauga Power Company, with which Mr. Rasmussen is affiliated, owns the water power development in Carter county that furnishes current for Bristol and other points in this section of the state. The trackless trolleys will be operated by Watauga current.

It is claimed that the trolleys, with their broad rubber wheels, will be a benefit to the macadam roads instead of an injury. The cars will carry from thirty to forty passengers and the freight cars will carry several tons of freight. It is claimed that the passenger and freight rates will be a very little in excess of those charged by the railroads. The system will be so constructed that the cars can swerve sixteen feet either way on the road, in order to pass other traffic.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

CONTRACT FOR HOSPITAL

Not Let, as Lowest Bid was $10,000 in Excess of Funds.

WILL MEET AGAIN TO-DAY.

Dr. Stuart Made Another Donation of $4,000, Trustees • Subscribe.

The Trustees of the Jennie Stuart Hospital met again yesterday morning at the City Bank.

All the members of the board were present excepting Thos. W. Long, as well as Dr. Stuart and Mr. Murphy, the architect. Nashville, Louisville, Owensboro and Hopkinsville contractors submitted bids for the construction of the building. The contract was not let, as the lowest bid was $10,000 in excess of the $30,000 fund on hand, which was given to the trustees for building the hospital.

After opening the sealed bids, the trustees discussed the situation freely, expressing themselves as being greatly disappointed at not being able to award the contract and let the work go forward at once.

The proposition to cut down the size of the building and drop off some of the less useful features of the plans drawn by the Messrs. Murphy, of Louisville, was looked upon with disfavor by Dr. Stuart, as it would greatly cripple the efficiency of the hospital, which he did not want done. Rather than have this done he agreed to give $4,000 of the $10,000 necessary to carry out the plans of the architects.

The members of the Board of Trustees relieved the situation which confronted them by making liberal contributions. It is the aim of the board to raise the amount still required by popular subscription, and a speedy campaign was agreed upon by the board before it adjourned about noon.

The Board of Trustees is composed of the following gentlemen: J. E. McPherson, chairman. Ira L. Smith, secretary. Dr. T. W. Blakey. Dr. Austin Bell. W. A. Lonz. W. T. Tandy.

The board is confident of a hearty response to the appeal. They will make to the people and are sanguine of being able to construct the hospital according to the plans adopted a short time since.

The board meets again today.

HERE'S A SURPRISE

Rumor That Miss Ellen Young Has Resigned From Faculty of High School.

A rumor is current that Miss Ellen Young, recently re-elected as a teacher, who is now in Los Angeles, Cal., has written to the trustees of the city public schools that she will decline to teach the coming year. It is also said that Miss Young has accepted a position in a business office in the city.

The Hard Part. "Huh!" says the friend. "You get your money easy enough." "Oh, I know I get it easily," replies the other. "All I have to do is stand in line for my pay envelope. It was the earning it I was kicking about—Judge."

"He acts as if he were the only big gun in the whole office." "Then, if he doesn't look out he'll be fired."

OPENING AUGUST 8

Virginia Park Almost Ready To Be Thrown Open To The Public.

J. R. GRESHAM, TO BE KEEPER

The Finishing Touches Are Being Put On The Work Under Way.

The Park Committee of the City Council met Tuesday night to make final arrangements for the opening of Virginia Park. The date will be August 8 at 8 p. m., if it suits the plans of the Lebkuecher Band, not now in the city. There will be a brief program of speeches, which has not been arranged yet.

The Committee agreed to employ James R. Gresham as park keeper, to begin service next Monday. His appointment is subject to the approval of the Council. His compensation was fixed at $45 a month.

Three dozen more lawn seats were ordered, 6 dozen having already been received.

The big urns will be set with flowers and other details arranged next week. All of the contract work except plastering and plumbing and some painting is about finished on the pavilion. The tile roof will be put on later, as the material is not in the city.

MERITORIOUS PROGRAM

Was Seen At The Rex Last Tuesday.

One of the best balanced programs ever shown in our city was that of the REX on Tuesday.

The Bison feature told an unusually coherent story, with a clear plot and a natural conclusion.

The battle scenes and the scenes in the open, the clarity and appeal of the story, made it easily the most artistic of the War Series of the Bison Company yet produced.

The comedies banalizing the grim scenes of the havoc of war, were laughable and depended upon real humor for the laugh, not on the time worn expedients of the slapstick variety and sent away a pleased and smiling audience.

The big three real Italia feature "The Palace of Flames" should prove a great drawing card for today.

The August Wide World Magazine.

Some thrilling stories and articles make the August Wide World Magazine a notable one. Captain Robert Thomas describes "The Wreck of the 'Criccieth Castle,'" and Geo. D. Abraham writes an inspiring account of his mountain climbing, "Twixt the Matterhorn and Mont Blanc." One of the most remarkable stories is contributed by H. H. Dunn, Special Correspondent for the Wide World Magazine in Mexico. This is an account of "The Escape of Manuel Gonzales" from that grim Castle of San Juan de Ulua, situated on an island in the harbor of Vera Cruz, Mexico. Gonzales is the only man who has ever escaped from this impregnable jail during the last four hundred years.

The August American Magazine.

The August American Magazine is a fiction number and leads off with the first instalment of a new serial by Inez Haynes Gillmore entitled "Angel Island." Mrs. Gillmore is the author of the celebrated "Phoebe and Ernest" stories. The scene of this new story is laid on an uninhabited island where, owing to a shipwreck, five men are stranded and there put to work out their problem under primitive conditions. In the course of the story flying women are to be introduced into the community and the tale is to center around the solution under the various difficulties that arise.

VIRGINIA STREET RESIDENCE

Also Was Burned Tuesday Morning at Loss of $2,000.

Tuesday morning, at 10:20, the fire department was called to the home of George N. Duffer, at South Virginia and Fourteenth streets. The department was but a few minutes in getting to the fire.

The roof of the building was nearly burned off by the time the firemen reached it. When the fire was discovered the shingle roof was burning rapidly, but had the department been called sooner the larger part could have been saved.

The origin of the fire is not known. Mrs. Duffer had been burning some trash in the back yard, but she had thrown water on the ashes. As the fire was confined to the roof the general theory is that a live wire was the cause of the fire.

By prompt work on the part of the men who preceded the fire department to the burning building Mr. Duffer's furniture was much of saved in good condition.

The building is the property of Mrs. Calvin Layne, now living in Louisville. The building was insured for $1,500, which will cover her loss.

Mr. Duffer's loss is also covered, part of the furnishings having been destroyed. Mr. Duffer's little girl is inconsolable over the loss of her 3-months-old Collie puppy, which was found dead in one corner of the bath room, its eyes burned out and the hair burned from its body. His furniture was insured for $500.

Here's the Latest.

"The tango gown" has made its appearance in New York, coming from Paris. It is described by the importer as follows: "The tango gown means that instead of a slit skirt, a pair of small Turkish trousers, reaching to the ankles and held by a band of crystal beads, has been adopted for ultra-fashionable dancing frocks. Over these attenuated trousers there is a drape of crepe of the same shade, entirely open, being held by a few stitches only, as far as the hip line. The figure is plainly visible above the knees. The new gown is called the last note in dress. The blouses and bodices are made loose and have the appearance of falling off. The upper part of the figure is not outlined in the least. Women don't care a fig how large their waists are, but seem anxious for gowns that makes ankles and calf visible. We may object, but it is the fashion, and Americans will have to get used to it."

The August Strand Magazine.

The August Strand is a special fiction number and contains a great many short and long stories written by leading novelists. Conan Doyle brings to a conclusion his thrilling story entitled "The Thrilling Belt," while Baroness Orczy continues her serial of Roman days "Unto Caesar." Contributors of short stories include Bertram Atkey, J. J. Bell, James Barr, Martin Swayne and Horace Annesley Vachell. Among the interesting articles may be mentioned, "Amusing Children I Have Met," written and illustrated by that famous delineator of child life, Hilda Cowham. Many other stories and articles make the August Strand particularly interesting.

Mrs. H. M. Gardner has returned from a visit to Cerulean.

Thirty-five Negro Convicts Meet a Horrible Fate.

IN A MISSISSIPPI CAMP.

Were Employed to Work on State Cotton Farms.

Jackson, Miss., July 23.—Trapped by flames in the second-story of an antiquated convict cage, the first floor of which was used to store hay, grain and molasses, thirty-five negro prisoners were burned to death at the Oakley convict farm, twenty miles from here, late last night.

The convicts all were worked in the cotton fields of the state farm and were housed in the "cage" at night. Among them were some desperate criminals serving long sentences.

ROAD EXPERT

Was in the County This Week in Official Capacity.

Under the new road law no fiscal court can award a contract for building a bridge that will cost as much as $500 until the state maintenance department furnishes an estimate of the cost of construction. That is a fine law, as it will probably save fiscal courts from being beaten occasionally, especially by iron bridge firms.

Marlon Ross, connected with the department, was here this week and took a drive with road superintendent Coleman to a point on Tradewater, known as "Collins' Bridge," where the Fiscal Court is expecting to build a new bridge.

HOLOCAUST IN FACTORY.

Fifty Women and Girls Burned to Death in New York.

IN A CLOTHING FACTORY.

Thirty Others Injured in a Horrible Disaster Tuesday Afternoon.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 23.—Fifty persons were killed, according to late estimates, and as many injured, a dozen of them mortally, in a fire which swept the four-story factory building of the Binghamton Clothing Company yesterday afternoon. The victims were chiefly women and girls.

Twenty-two bodies have been recovered. In the city hospital and private institutions are thirty injured. Some twoscore persons are known to have escaped as if by a miracle from the building, which burst into flame like a tinder-box and became a roaring furnace almost in no time after the first alarm was sounded.

About 125 persons were in the factory when the fire broke out. Those unaccounted for, or most of them, are believed to be still in the red-hot ruins of the structure.

Lippincott's.

This is the time of year when a number of magazines get out "fiction numbers." Lippincott's, however, does not have to do this, as all its numbers are fiction ones. A timely special article and a little clever miscellany merely serve to add variety.

The August number contains an unusually fine complete novel, entitled "The Egerton Standard," by Eleanor M. Ingram, a great favor to with Lippincott's readers. Her book, "From the Car Behind," had a tremendous sale, and a new novel by her is sure to be eagerly welcomed. "The Egerton Standard" has for its theme family pride—two kinds.

It will be of particular value to you now. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, markets, cartoons; in fact, everything that is to be found in a first class daily.

MANY ALIENS COME ORIGIN OF THE PIN

Tide of Immigration Reaches a Record Point.

More Foreigners Admitted to Uncle Sam's Domain During This Year Than in Any of the Three Previous Years, Figures Show.

Washington.—Immigration to the United States has been heavier this year than during the three previous years, 747,998 immigrant aliens having been admitted to this country during the nine months from July, 1912, to and including March, in addition to which 140,901 non-immigrant aliens were admitted, making a total of 888,899.

A total of 12,557 aliens were debarred for various causes. Emigrant aliens departing numbered 247,798 and non-emigrant aliens 198,065.

American citizens going abroad during the nine months numbered 242,150; those returning 223,478. These departures and arrivals made the passenger movement during that period total 1,124,934 arrivals and 688,022 departures.

More Japanese entered the country during the nine months than during the entire previous year, 6,435, compared with 6,172 while 591 returned to Japan, compared with 1,501 during 1912. Immigrants from the Russian empire predominated during the period, 176,252 persons from there having entered, compared with 162,395 in 1912. Italians were next with 150,333, compared with 157,234 in 1912.

By occupation the majority of immigrants were farm laborers, 172,639 having entered; other laborers were 133,214; servants, 90,532, and tailors, 16,648. One significant feature of the statistics is the fact that the number of laborers departing exceeded the number arriving. During the nine months 164,025 sailed and during the previous year 209,279, compared with 133,214 arrivals in the period and 135,726 for 1912.

GOVERNMENT MUST PAY.

The commonwealth of New Hampshire the other day lodged a claim for 35 cents against the federal government of the United States, and the worst of it is the United States has to pay, notwithstanding that economy must be the watchword of the administration in the face of tariff revision.

Zealous state authorities in an unrelenting campaign against pests invaded the back yard of the postoffice building at Dover, N. H., and discovered three brownish moth nests in a lonely tree that sheds its shade upon the hard-working postal employees of Dover during their rest periods. The state "bugologists" without much ado destroyed the nests of the pernicious bugs and nonchalantly presented a bill for 35 cents, evidently at the established rate of 15 cents for the first nest and 10 cents for each of the others.

The postmaster protested vigorously, with the declaration that he himself could have annihilated the moths without expense if the state had pointed them out. An issue was threatened and the quarrel was referred to the treasury department.

Sherman Allen, assistant secretary of the treasury, who learned diplomacy as an assistant secretary to President Taft, conceded the point. After a formal bill and voucher was rendered a treasury warrant was sent to the state.

SHOWS BIG GAIN.

More than 150,000,000 parcel post packages were handled in the postal service during the first three months of the new system in operation, according to reports submitted to Postmaster General Burleson. These figures, which are based on the amount of business done at the 50 largest post-offices, show that approximately 62,000,000 parcels were handled during the month of March or about 12,000,000 more than were handled in February, when the total exceeded January by 10,000,000. Approximately 55 per cent more business was handled in March than in January.

As during the first two months, Chicago led all other cities in the number of parcels handled with a total of 6,895,744; New York city handled 5,973,075 and Boston 1,657,039. The most noticeable gain was made in Detroit by jumping from eighth place in January and ninth in February to fourth in March, with a total of 1,420,000; following in order are Philadelphia with a total of 1,294,954; Cleveland, 1,209,000; St. Louis, 1,148,586; Brooklyn, 983,130; Jersey City, 865,848, and Kansas City with 687,000.

CHINA'S FOREIGN TRADE.

China's total foreign trade for 1912 was approximately 900,000,000 taels, or $585,000,000 in United States money. This is an increase of $39,000,000 over 1911. The combination of the revolution in 1911 and bumper crops in 1912 was responsible for the jump. However, the imports continued to be somewhat in excess of the exports.

America's participation in the trade with China in 1912 kept pace with previous years, except in cotton piece goods. In 1911 China took 16,000,000 pieces, but only 11,250,000 pieces in 1912. The American contribution of 2,500,000 pieces in 1911 was cut to 1,700,000 pieces last year representing $7,000,000 and $4,500,000, respectively.

Adjunct of Every-Day Life of Great Antiquity.

In Crudest Form It Was Doubtless Natural Thorn—Machine Now Used to Make Them the Invention of a Massachusetts Man.

From the earliest times the pin has been an adjunct of every-day life. In its crudest form it was doubtless a natural thorn of the sort still used as a fastening by the peasant women of Upper Egypt. The name itself goes far toward indicating the origin, spina being, of course, the Latin for a thorn, while the spina christi is the great thorn tree. Centuries ago the Welsh used "pindraem," thorns scraped and dried, for fastening their clothing, while even today in England gypsies use the long, sharp shafts of the blackthorn for this purpose. The Red Indians and the central Asian tribes have the same habit.

After this primary form of pin came the bone pin of the prehistoric age—an instrument made from the bone of some animal, split and then rubbed to a point. From this emerged the bronze pin of the bronze age, polished and finely tempered, and it was during the bronze period that the safety pin came into being. The first efforts in the latter direction were bow-shaped and awkward, but these soon lined down to a virtual replica of the pin seen today. There were also long stiletto pins with ribbed handles, many of which have been found in Egyptian deposits of 1400 B. C., and in Cyprus and Sparta. Needless to say, these could prove dangerous weapons in violent hands, apropos of which Herodotus tells a strange story of the disastrous expedition undertaken by the Athenians in the sixth century. One man alone returned to Athens, a fact which so enraged the wives of the slain that they set upon the unfortunate survivor and slew him with the stout pins which fastened their dresses. After this the ladies of Athens were officially debarred from the use of these dangerous stilletos.

Hairpins have been elaborated as a means of decoration since the earliest times. Particularly beautiful is the variety and delicacy of their workmanship, two of the finest specimens being the gold pins which were found at Salamis in Cyprus, and are now in the British museum. Even more handsome were the Saxon pins of later date, with their shanks of brass head of gold and embellishment of garnets and pearls. These were, too, the larger sort of pins so conspicuously and frequently mentioned in the Bible. The instrument driven by Jack through the temple of Sistrera was probably a tent pin, while Dillie fastened the web of Samson's hair with a pin or batten. In the middle ages pins were a great fashion—indeed, a necessity—in France, and we have it on record that in 1347 12,000 pins were removed from the royal wardrobe for one of the French princesses.

The convenience was probably a little later in reaching England, but in 1540 we hear of Queen Catharine (Howard) importing pins from France in 1560 the trade underwent considerable change, brass superseding iron while at the same time the price was lowered. During the reign of James I. the metal pin came into fashion. In 1817 a machine for producing entire pins was invented by an American, Seth Hunt, but it remained for Samuel Wright of Massachusetts to patent in 1824 the wonderful pin-making machine which is generally used today.

Poor Girl.

"How long have you been married?" "It will be six months next Tuesday."

"And do you still regard your husband as the most wonderful man who ever was born?"

Then the poor girl broke down and sobbed piteously. When she could trust herself to speak again she said:

"No. Charles has disappointed me terribly. I'm afraid I have wrecked my life. Last night when I asked him to get up and see if there wasn't a burglar in our room he bumped his nose against the edge of the open door and he said three simple awful swear words just as if they came natural to him."—San Francisco Star Hunger Strike of Long Ago.

As long ago as the reign of Edward III. the hunger strike was known in England. Cecilia, wife of John de Ryegway, was in 1357 confined in Nottingham jail on a charge of murdering her husband, and there, according to the old records, she abstained from meat and drink for forty days. Which, being reported to the king, he was "moved by pity, and for the glory of God and the Blessed Virgin to grant the woman a pardon." The records say nothing of her guilt or innocence, nor do they throw any light on fourteenth century ideas of forcible feeding.

Young Entomologist.

Saturday afternoon when I was fixing the screens for windows and doors in our house, my son Robert, three and one-half years old, was an interested and very inquisitive spectator. Among other things he asked: "Who do you put the screen door on, pa?" "Well," I answered, "so the flies won't eat you up." He pondered a second upon this, and then suddenly burst out: "The flies can't eat me up; they get only little mouths."—Exchange.

the work of the United States bureau of Fisheries is shown by the fact that in the first eight months of the present fiscal year the number of eggs collected for planting exceeds by 834, 000,000 the number gathered in the same period last year. The number so far this year reaches the gigantic total of 2,185,000,000, against 1,351, 000,000 in 1912.The greatest gain has been in whitefish eggs from the great lakes, where this year's take has been 524,000,000, an increase of 380,000,000. In lake trout the increase has been from 59, 000,000 to 69,000,000.In the New England coast this year's gathering of pollock eggs has been 867,000,000. At Gloucester, Mass., last year's haddock egg collection totaled 160,000,000 and this year's will exceed that by many millions. All the haddock eggs are taken from fish caught for market, so that eggs that would otherwise be sold and eaten are saved for further propagation.Dog salmon egg collection shows the largest gain on the Pacific coast, this year's take having been 20,000, 000, against 3,300,000 last year.MONEY ALMOST GERM PROOF.Those who have hesitated to amass wealth because of the warning to "beware the millions of bacteria that lurk in every bill" need hesitate no longer, according to Dr. W. C. Rucker, assistant surgeon general of the public health service. He declared the other day that tests and examination of currency, both washed and unwashed bills, showed them to be singularly free from germs. He attributed this to the ink used in printing the bills, which he said had proved to be an almost perfect germicide."The public health service was called upon to examine the soiled money returned to the treasury," said Dr.
Rucker, "after it had traveled around the country and had passed through the hands of thousands of persons.
To our surprise it was found to be singularly free from bacteria, and the ink used in the bills is given the credit."The ingredients used in the government's ink are not made public, the recipe for the manufacture of the ink for the bureau of engraving and printing being zealously guarded.PRICES CUT DOWN.Prices received by producers in the United States for staple crops increased 2.3 per cent. from April 1 to May 1, according to a report by the department of agriculture. The increase for the same period a year ago was 8.4 and the average increase during April for the last five years was 8.4. On May 1 prices of staple crops averaged about 30.1 per cent. lower than on May 1, 1912, according to the department.The average prices for meat animals increased 3.7 per cent. from March 15 to April 15, as compared with an increase of 10.7 per cent. for the same period of 1912. On April 15 prices of meat animals averaged 16.7 per cent. higher than on April 15, 1912.
On April 15, 1911, the prices for meat animals were 26.6 per cent. lower than they were on April 15 this year.VAST "COOKBOOK" ISSUE.More than 12,000,000 copies of the various "cookbooks" prepared by the department of agriculture, the latest of which is one on how to serve mutton in a number of delectable forms, have been issued since this line of government activity began. By far the largest number published was of a bulletin on the "Economic Use of Meat in the Home," which ran up to the enormous total of 2,235,000. Congress itself printed 500,000 copies in addition to those distributed by the department.Of the bread-making pamphlet, nearly 500,000 have been distributed, and of the cheese leaflet almost 300, 000 have been sent out. Of the mutton bulletin, just out, 50,000 copies have been ordered printed for initial distribution.Six-Mile Depth Near Philippines.A surveying ship of the German navy has recently discovered the deepest known spot in the ocean. It is near the Philippines, about forty sea miles off the north coast of Mindanao.Great depths were found to be numerous in this region, but the record sounding showed the amazing result of 9,780 meters, or 406 feet more than six miles.The greatest ocean depth hitherto known was found by the United States cable steamer Nero in 1901.
This spot was to the south of the Island of Guam, and the deep sea lead indicated 9,635 meters—just a little less than six miles.Finda Moonlight Calls Forth Germs.Strange powers always have been assigned to the moon, and it is not surprising to learn that a South African belief is that moonlight hastens the decomposition of fish.But it is surprising to find this belief brought forward as more than a superstition. D. E. Hutchins says he has obtained experimental proof of this action of the moon, and suggested that it is due to some low form of life called forth or stimulated to action by moonlight.Solemn Speculation."So you think that new turtle cure will be expensive?" said one doctor.
"Well," replied the other, "it may depend on whether it employs ordinary mud turtle or terrapin."Just Half in BedClyde, Ky.—Mrs. I. A. Decker: "I to do my own work. Half my time was spent in bed. At last I tried

NEW BRANCH OF EDUCATION."The municipal university is comparatively new in this country, and its development will be watched with interest," said Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education the other day, in discussing the University of Cincinnati. "There are certainly significant things about this city university that tend to show how valuable such an institution may be to a community. Consider the student body. Something like 22 per cent. of the students are fatherless. Of the fathers of the others, less than one-fourth are in the so-called professions.
Over three-fourths are in nonprofessional, commercial or mechanical pursuits. As a further indication of the class reached by the university, 85.5 per cent. of the male students have followed gainful occupations before coming to college, and 74 per cent. of them work regularly for a part of the time during the year."Although the municipal university may be more or less of a novelty in this country, it is by no means so rare abroad. Any one who has studied at Lepseic knows that the university in that city is not merely a great German university, but is first and foremost the University of Lepseic—a municipal institution."SMITH WAS PERPLEXED.Postmaster General Burleson had a caller the other day, and when the caller and transacted his business Mr.
Burleson was minus just $5. The man had been hanging around the postmaster general's outer office some time. He explained to Ed Smith, confidential clerk of the postmaster general, that he was a lawyer, had been to see Secretary of War Garrison and wanted just a minute with the postmaster general. Smith explained that his chief was very busy, but he managed to get the visitor in to see him late in the afternoon. As the latter emerged from the postmaster general's presence Smith was called in."Look here, Smith," said the postmaster general, "don't you know that you let a book agent in to see me?"

Smith was perplexed.

"But never mind," continued Mr.
Burleson. "He had a book for sale for which I have been looking for the last three years and I bought one from him."GREAT INFLUX OF IMMIGRANTS.The influx of immigrants into the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, will probably be greater than that for any other year in the history of the country. Judging from the reports now being received by the commissioner general of immigration, the arrival of aliens in this country by the end of June will pass the high water mark of 1907, when approximately 1,200,000 immigrants landed on the shores of America.Statistics received by Commissioner General Keefe show that for the first nine months of the present fiscal year, which ended March 31, 1913, a total of 888,899 immigrants arrived in this country at all ports of entry. If this ratio should keep up, it is estimated that at least 420,000 additional will arrive during the last three months of the year, which will bring the grand total up to 1,308,899, the highest mark ever reached, according to the records at the immigration bureau.EXPERIENCE ONLY WAY.More than 40 per cent. of all the farmers interviewed by government representatives believe that experience is the only way to learn how to farm. This percentage told agents recently sent out by the department of agriculture that they took no stock in farmers' institutes, demonstration agents, farm papers or department of agriculture publications as aids in helping to make the soil more productive.Starting on motorcycles or on foot four department agents have traveled through 13 states, visiting every farmer along the way and asking questions. This inquiry revealed the fact that of the farmers who got department of agriculture bulletins, 84 per cent. read them, and 48 per cent.
followed the suggestions contained therein. Of those who attended farmers' institutes it was learned that 54 per cent. practiced the methods advocated there.COLLECTION OF RARE BIRDS.A collection of more than 2,000 rare birds has been presented to the Smithsonian institution as the result of an expedition through Africa by Maj.
Edgar Mearns, U. S. A., retired, of the army medical corps. The birds are now being classified and cataloged.
Major Mearns accompanied Colonel Roosevelt on his famous African tour, and he was asked to make a second trip with an expedition fitted out by Childs Erick, son of the steel magnate.
He also represented the Smithsonian institution on this expedition.Hot Sun No Aid to Crops.Farmers will be interested to learn, on the authority of a French scientist, that just as good harvests can be expected after a dull summer as after a long spell of sunshine.He says that the value of the burning orb's rays in helping crops is greatly overestimated. Observations show that crops were just as good after the summers of 1910 and 1912, when the skies generally were overcast, as after the universally sunny summer of 1911.The reason for this, he says, is that only a moderate quantity of light is necessary to assimilate the carbonic gas in the air.SOOT-I-CIDE*CLEANS FLUES

Bob Taylor Lives,

In the two bright and beautiful books just issued, "Lectures and Best Literary Productions," and "Life and Career" of Senator Robert Love Taylor, handsomely illustrated, you cannot hear again his voice or see the humorous curl of his lips, that convulsed a continent with laughter, but, within the covers of these volumes, are the pictures woven of his wondrous words, and, laughing through their sunny pages, are all of the inimitable stories which he told to the multitudes. In "Life and Career," pens of genius have traced his romantic life from its morning in "Happy Valley," through his young and roseate dreams through stress and storm, through cheering throngs, and on into the waiting shadows, loved and laurel crowned.

We expect to sell millions of these books. First edition going fast.

Hooks For The Old Men.

A young lady who appears to have been devoting some thought to the subject of matrimony writes to the Kansas City Star, setting forth her conclusions as follows:

I'd rather marry a young man With forty cows to milk—
Than to marry an old man With his hat all lined with silk.

The old man comes hobbling in Quite weary of his life.

The young man comes skipping in—"Come kiss me! My dear wife."

The old man is old!
The old man is gray!

The young man is full of love!
Go 'way—old man—go 'way!

Here is a fine theory and it is, no doubt, well that girls have sufficient faith to cling to it. But—

You must first round up your young man

With forty cows to milk;
And only a foolish old man Would line his hat with silk.

Sometimes young men grow weary, Plagued by domestic strife;
The young man's shout may cease to be

"Come kiss me! My dear wife."

So let the poor old man be old,
He can't be young and gay; But how old must an old man be

To be an old man, anyway?
